

State Society

Continued from Page 2.

MURRAY.

A very pleasant social was given Monday evening in the Fraternal hall by the Knights of Pythias. The large hall was prettily decorated with the lodge emblems and quite a number of members, and friends of the Salt Lake lodge participated in the event.

Mrs. Daniel Smith entertained a number of her friends Tuesday afternoon at tea. The rooms were bright with flowers and an excellent program was carried out during the afternoon.

The amusement committee are making elaborate arrangements for their benefit entertainment to take place Tuesday. Richard Winder left Saturday evening for McCammon, Ida., to be gone some time.

Clarence Gordon left during the week for his home in St. George.

Saturday evening's dance at the Trocadero was under a new management and Cox's orchestra having leased the place for the rest of the summer. They furnished an excellent program to the large crowd that was present.

Mrs. Peter Hansen returned home during the week from Logan, where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

A very pleasant social was given during the week by the Out for Fun club. Quite a number of the young people made merry the event.

Charles Evans left for Yellowstone park during the week for an indefinite stay.

Arthur Hall left during the week for Milford after a short sojourn with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones have returned home from Spanish Fork, where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tingley and family, who have resided at this place for some time, left the latter part of the week for Elgin, Neb., where they will make their future home.

James Paxton has returned to Murray after completing his first year's course at the L. D. S. U. He will spend the summer in this city.

LOGAN.

The one great social event of the week was the banquet and ball of the Agricultural Association given Tuesday evening. The greater part of Logan's swell society element was in attendance, making the affair a really brilliant one.

The local Odd Fellows lodge gave a delightful farewell reception on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. T. E. McGraw, who is shortly to leave for Portland, Ore.

A big reception was given on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Kristen Nielsen in honor of the marriage of her daughter, Marie, to Mr. Cadmus Wallace. About seventy-five guests were present, and they had a merry time.

Professor William Jardine, formerly of the A. C. but now of Washington, D. C., is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

The faculty of the A. C. tendered Professor Kerr a reception on Monday evening, at which the parents of Mrs. Hansen, with two handsome pieces of furniture, Mr. and Mrs. Allan M. Clarke of Yakima, Wash., were entertained on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Larsen.

Mrs. Samuel Pike left for La Grande, Ore., this week to visit with her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Nielsen.

L. R. Martineau of Salt Lake City spent part of the week with Logan friends.

Mrs. C. M. Groesbeck left here on Thursday morning for Ann Arbor, Mich., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Snow. She will likely remain there all summer.

Professor Franklin Daines of the B. Y. college and Miss Nettie Maughan, daughter of Judge W. W. Maughan, were married on Thursday and left immediately for Berkeley, Cal., where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. E. W. Carter of Vernal, Utah, came to Logan this week on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Drysdale.

Mrs. L. Clark of San Francisco left here on Monday for Salt Lake City, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Emma Nielsen, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Goodwin went to Pocatello on Tuesday to attend the wedding of Miss Pearl Goodwin and Mr. Armstrong Shields.

Mrs. Leo Campbell is in Pocatello for a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Bertie Johnson returned Thursday from a pleasant visit with Salt Lake friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Hansen returned the first of the week from a trip along the Pacific Coast.

Miss Helen Boyer of the New Jersey academy left for the east on Friday. She will spend the summer there.

Rev. N. E. Clements returned this week from an eastern trip. He went as delegate of the Utah Presbytery to the assembly at Cleveland, O., but visited several other cities while there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Merrill of Oakley, Idaho, were in Logan and vicinity this week visiting friends.

J. L. Linton of Seattle, who is visiting friends here, was entertained at a card party on Thursday evening by Mrs. O. L. Allen.

AMERICAN FORK.

Miss Bernice Chipman, the accomplished and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Chipman of the city of Rexburg, Idaho, was married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday evening.

They came to the American Fork Thursday evening and were given a reception at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were very prettily and artistically decorated for the occasion, and a most elegant supper was served. The immediate relatives of the family being invited guests. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. After spending a short honeymoon they will make their home at Rexburg, Idaho.

Miss Sadie Wheeler, a popular young lady of this place, and Karl J. Jensen of Salt Lake City were married in Salt Lake City Wednesday. The young couple will make their home in that city.

William E. Gardner, well known in this state in honor of his father, who left Friday for a two months' visit to Rexburg.

Mrs. B. F. Booth, Mrs. W. L. Eddy, Mrs. J. D. Call, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baird enjoyed "Peter Pan" at the Salt Lake theatre.

Many people from afar have visited our city this week. Among others are W. H. McNeerney of Lincoln, Neb., C. B. McNeerney of Des Moines, Ia.; David Loveland of Teton Basin; Major R. W. Young and Frank Gustaf of Salt Lake, and Oliver Wood of Salt Lake, who are here on a wedding trip.

The superior favor of Brigham travelers on court business during the week.

Miss Lizzy Booth, who has been attending the Brigham Young university of Provo, and is pleased to learn of the recovery of their little daughter Olive, who has been seriously ill with diphtheria, the quarantine was lifted from the home last Friday.

Due to so many members of the Woman's Unity club being absent from camp the next meeting will not be held until some of the wanderers have returned. When the meeting will be held it will be subject to the call of the president at the home of Mrs. Dudley.

J. W. Esse and O. E. Merryfield left camp during the week for a new location. They will tour the northwest and possibly will locate in one of the thriving towns of Nevada.

Mrs. Frank Stringham and children left camp the first of the week for a two months' visit with relatives at Provo.

Mrs. John Atsach and daughters, Misses Hattie and Rena, and son Freddie of Mercur, are in camp this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis. Mrs. Atsach is the mother of Mrs. Lewis.

C. E. Adderley and family left Sunday for an extended eastern trip, taking in the principal cities and visiting at Mr. Adderley's former home in New York. They expect to be absent about two months.

Mrs. Fillback and daughter, Miss Jessie, sister and niece of F. W. West, are up from Fayette, Utah, to spend the summer with relatives in camp.

Willie Hair, student at the State Agricultural college, Logan, came in Sunday and will spend his vacation with his parents at Highland Boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Osborn and her three daughters of Humboldt, Ariz., arrived in camp Wednesday for a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Osborn's mother, Mrs. Dan Clays.

J. H. Warrall, superintendent of the American Sunday School union, has been in camp the past week, guest of Rev. Charles Lewis.

Lester Dobbs, student at the State Agricultural college, Logan, returned to camp Tuesday for his summer vacation.

Mrs. Brissette, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. E. Rogers, for the past six months, returned to her home in Butte last Saturday. Mrs. Rogers accompanied her as far as Salt Lake, returning to camp Tuesday.

Mrs. Morrissey returned to the capital Monday, after a week's visit here with her granddaughter, Mrs. Adamson.

Mrs. Nettie Mitchell, who expected to leave camp on the first to visit relatives at her old home at Martin's Ferry, O., was detained by the critical illness of her son, Frank, who was stricken with pneumonia.

Mrs. Fred L. Bassett has returned, after an extended visit with relatives at North Platte, Neb., and taken part of the large house in Carr Fork near the Shawmut.

E. G. Locke, local secretary of the Miners' union, left Friday for Denver, Colo., in the interests of that organization.

Mrs. E. F. Harvey of Ely, Nev., who has been visiting friends and relatives at San Francisco and Los Angeles, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Christopher-son of this camp.

Bishop W. E. Waters, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia for some weeks past, was able to be out Saturday.

The W. O. W. held their election of officers Saturday night and elected Dr. C. N. Ray consul commander; Fred Bassett, adviser; lieutenant; Ross Johnson and A. T. Williams, managers; J. Booth, escort.

E. Booth, sentinel. Organizer Kennedy for this jurisdiction was present and obtained two new chapters.

This evening the Odd Fellows will hold appropriate memorial services at their hall in memory of deceased brothers. It will be an open meeting, the public being welcome. The services will be conducted by Rev. Charles Lewis of the M. E. church.

Morris P. Kirk, superintendent for the Nevada Utah Mining company, has completed a commodious cottage at the mine and the family will spend the summer months with Mr. Kirk in the mountains.

Tom McCormack, general foreman of the Last Chance, has returned from Salt Lake, where he married a Michigan belle and they are now living in a cozy cottage near Tom on the north dump east of the mines.

If It Happens It's in The Herald.

Second week of the June white carnival

June white carnival

Walker's

New millinery

Undermuslins

Children's dresses for summer wear

Entire stock of parasols reduced this week

Second week of the June white carnival

In the "busy basement"

A splendid line of baskets just in. Including all sizes of clothes baskets, hampers and waste baskets—prices very reasonable.

Don't forget the two splendid bargain tables—

One at 10c—the other at 15c.

Articles on these tables worth two and three times the prices asked.

Taffeta skirts

A splendid line of black chiffon taffeta skirts—full box pleated and very handsomely made—elegant values at the price—$12.00 each.

Shirt waist and jacket suits at half

About three dozen in the assortment—sizes for women and misses. Made of linens and madras in blue, white and other light shades. Worth $10.00 to $25.00 each. You select at just half prices.

Women's neckwear and handkerchiefs special

Fifteen elegant ruffs, worth $5.00 to $15.00 each, you select from the entire lot at just half regular prices.

Turnover collars, twelve dozen in the lot, daintily edged with Irish crochet lace, and embroidered, worth 50c and 65c each.

Choice 25c

Hundreds of short lengths of embroidery to close this week.

After the tremendous selling of our first week of the June white carnival, we find countless short lengths of embroideries—just right for corset covers, etc.—all prices and all widths—a splendid opportunity.

Walker's center aisle—back.

Second week of the June White Carnival in the "men's corner" reveals greater offers than ever—many new lines arriving late for the first week's business have been placed on sale at greatly reduced prices. Every white article in the department reduced except E. and W. shirts and collars, Knipp linen underwear, Arrow collars, Scriven's drawers—articles restricted by the makers.

White hosiery and knit underwear at even greater reductions

Fine ribbed shirts and drawers—fifty dozen in the lot. Full sizes, excellently made, worth 50c the garment 42c

Finest imported lisle shirts and drawers, elegant texture, beautifully finished, worth $1.25 the garment 1.05

50 dozen 50c and 65c quality vests, extra special 35c

Every pair of white stockings in the department at splendid mark-downs.

Swiss suits underpriced like this

$12.00 quality silk 9.25

$7.50 quality silk 5.50

$5.00 quality silk 3.95

$3.50 quality silk 2.95

$2.50 quality lisle 1.89

$1.25 quality lisle 63c

Lace trimmed underwear reduced

$1.25 pants for 1.05

$1.00 pants for .85c

75c pants for .55c

35c pants for .25c

25c pants for .21c

50c pants for .44c

Walker's east aisle—Main store.

Unusual rug specials for this week

Saxony rugs, size 27 by 54 inches, worth $4.00 each. Choose while they last at $2.60

Bigelow Wilton rugs, size 36 by 72, worth $5.50 each. Choose this week, while they last $3.50

Bigelow Wilton rugs, size 36 by 63, worth $5.50 each. Choose this week, while they last $7.25

Bigelow Imperial rugs, size 9 by 12 feet, worth $45.00 each. Choose this week, while they last $36.00

Sanford's Axminster rugs—the best axminster manufactured, worth $32.50 each $23.00

Choice this week $23.00

Jute smyrna rugs at these underpricings:

Size 22 by 45, worth $1.75..75c

Size 27 by 54, worth $2.00..1.05

Size 15 by 32, worth 50c..39c

All wool art squares, size 9 by 12, while they last $8.45

you choose at $8.45

Undermuslins

A few elegant bridal sets of undermuslins, comprising drawers, chemise and gowns. Very beautifully trimmed with German val. laces, and hand embroidery. Gowns have large kimona sleeves. Drawers are full circular style, all daintily threaded with wash ribbon—prices reduced like this per set—$10.00 for $6.50; $13.75 for $10.75; $16.00 for $12.00.

Fine nainsook and cambric gowns

High or low neck styles, with long or short sleeves, very neatly trimmed with ribbon, embroidery and lace, $2.50 and $3.25 values to go at $1.59

Walker's first floor—Annex.

Boys' wash suits

A fine showing is this—including linen, pique and madras suits—also a handsome line of crashees—Russian, Sailor and coat styles—to fit boys from 2½ to 14 years of age—Prices 75c to $6.00 each.

Juvenile section—First floor—Annex.

Boys' hats and caps

A large assortment of the prettiest styles for this season—there are sizes shapes of hats and caps in linen and other fabrics, beside a splendid line of straws. Prices begin at 35c.

Entire stock of parasols reduced this week

White and colors, silks, linens and all—reductions to clear out at least half of our parasols this week.

$40.00 values go at $25.00

$22.50 values go at $16.50

$12.50 values go at $9.75

$12.00 values go at $9.50

$3.00 values go at $2.20

$7.00 values go at $5.75

$6.50 values go at $5.00

$5.00 values go at $3.95

$3.50 values go at $2.85

$2.00 values go at $1.45

And many others just as good.

Walker's west aisle—Main store.

Entire stock of fine art glass—pieces worth $2.50 to $35.00 each—going at one-fourth off. Sale in center aisle.